

2012 Washington D.C. Hotels Rates for the Pan American Health Organization (PAHO)

(Add 14.5 % taxes for D.C. and 10.25% for Virginia)

The Tax Agreement between Washington, D.C. and UN Agencies in this city does not exempt travelers from paying hotel taxes. PAHO also has no tax agreement with Virginia; therefore, travelers will have to pay full taxes.

The following rates are provided for your convenience and staff are not required to use one of the hotels listed here. The hotels allot a certain number of rooms at the PAHO rate and should they sell 80% or more of their hotel inventory, the best available rate may be offered instead of the rates provided below.

Some of the corporate rates offered do not fall within the currently established per diem for the Washington, D.C. area. If the rate is above the established per diem rate, you must either follow the current procedures for requesting an ad hoc per diem, providing proper justification, or absorb it within your existing per diem.
